

Biographie

Cécile Bernheim is a seasoned senior business executive with solid blue-chip FMCG background and international experience in highly competitive and changing environments.

Cecile is passionate about people development and brings to Professional Women's Network Paris her professional skills combined with her high level of emotional intelligence to advance female leadership and expand the aura of PWN in the French ecosystem.

Cécile recently founded S2E Partners a strategy consultancy firm. She helps companies in transforming their strategic vision into concrete and realistic action plans and achieving their profitable growth ambition.

Previously she spent over 20 years with The Coca-Cola Company in General Management, Strategy and Commercial roles. Cécile also acted as Strategy Consultant with Bain & Cie; she started her career in R&D in the Pharmaceutical industry.

Cécile is a qualified biologist and pharmacist, holding an MBA from IMD in Lausanne. She is certified as "Non Executive Director" (ESSEC).