

Get to Know Us

Indira Bonvini

Indira is an Italian national with a degree from Bocconi, the most renowned business university in Italy, based in Milan. She has 20 years' experience as an HR manager in major international groups. Indira has worked throughout her career in various countries, including France, Italy, the USA and England. Indira knows the world of industry and luxury well. Her work is mainly centered on the development of trust relationships and alliance strategies for leaders, teams and organizations. She focuses her activity on creating commitment and collaboration for an optimal Return on Investment following organizational changes.

Indira is in charge of the Career Advice Center for the Alumni Association of the Bocconi University in Paris.

Indira is an Intercultural Lecturer at the Ecole des Mines de Paris

Professional experience:

12 years at Schlumberger in functional and operational roles;

8 years' experience in the world of luxury in Paris, first at Chanel (5 years) and then at Dior Parfums (LVMH);

Since 2014 Indira has dedicated herself to the development of teams in companies using a resolutely positive approach.